Blind Spot: Moments Unseen – Documentary / Canada / 48:00 min / DVD

Directed by: Stefan Morel

<http://blindspotfilm.com/>

There is more to seeing than sight.

A vision quest documentary, Blind Spot; Moments Unseen features three visually impaired adventurers who journey by horseback into the heart of the Andes.

During a 3-week guided expedition in the wilderness of Argentina's Northern Patagonia, the film documents the epic, horse-powered trek of Carly, Ruth and Terry, who chart a route where blindness leads to clarity and adversity creates possibility.

The Andes provide a mythical metaphor for life's gauntlet of physical – and figurative – blindness. The environment awakens the blind riders' and their sighted guides' untapped senses. This juxtaposition of perceptions expands our perspective on how to interpret everyday obstacles.

Directed by: Ron Davis

<http://www.harryandsnowman.com/>

HARRY & SNOWMAN is a feature length documentary that tells the true life story of show jumping legend Harry deLeyer and his champion horse Snowman.

Snowman was an old Amish plow horse that Harry rescued off a truck that was bound for the meat and glue factory for only $80. Less than two years after he rescued Snowman, they rose to become the national show jumping champions and were the Cinderella story and media darlings of late 1950's and 1960's.

Very few horse stories have been able to truly touch the hearts of a nation. Red Pollard & Seabiscuit did in the 1930's, Harry deLeyer & Snowman did it in the 1950's and then Ron Turcotte & Secretariat were the last to do it in the 1970's.

HARRY & SNOWMAN will be the first time that Harry's remarkable and heartfelt life story will be told by 85-year-old Harry himself.

Their Last Ride – Documentary Trailer / USA / 5:32 min / Blu-Ray

Through her heritage, an Enrolled Cherokee by blood, Neta Rhyne has a deep rooted connection to the Spirit of the Horse. Neta is a direct descendant of the "Trail Of Tears" where the horses and mules played an important role in the forced "Removal" of her ancestors to a new land.

Today Rhynes' home is located on Historic land in the small community of Toyahvale, Texas. In this Historic community, her home is located on the exact spot where 4,000 horses served the 1st Calvary in their "War Games".

Every year Neta witnesses thousands of horses, burros and mules being hauled through Toyahvale for THEIR LAST RIDE to a place they were never meant to be. This is an unacceptable ending for these majestic animals!

Today Neta fights to bring awareness to the many hardships that horses face. She created a community based organization, Thundering Hooves, to provide a platform to reach an audience unaware of the plight of the horses and to help connect people of all ages to the Spirit of the Horse. This successful outreach program has proven to be a catalysis to forward Netas' goal of creating the change these noble creatures so deserve!

Remember Snowman was pulled off of a trailer just like this!

The Black Turf Project – Documentary Trailer / USA / 14:49 min / DVD

Directed by: Ken Brown

The Black Turf Project: African Americans in Thoroughbred Racing is planned as a multimedia educational experience that will bring to life one of the least known yet most important sports stories in American history— African Americans in Thoroughbred Racing. Covering a history, that begins in Africa, and migrates with the slave trade to Colonial America, the horse-racing achievements of African Americans reach their peak in the late 19th and early 20th centuries. African American jockeys and trainers dominance on the turf is suffocated by Jim Crow and other socio-economic factors, causing a forced exodus of some the most talented riders to foreign turfs in the early 20th century.

Through film, fine art, and an educational website, Black Turf will explore key figures and events in the history of African American Thoroughbred Racing. The Kentucky Derby Museum will be the host of The Black Turf Project premier at a date to be announced.

A documentary about a teenage girl who falls in love with a champion racehorse she sees on tv and how 21 years later, fate brings them together.

This film tells the story of famed thoroughbred, Our Mims, the 1977 Eclipse Award Champion 3-year-old Filly. Jeanne Mirabito makes a "cosmic claim" on the horse and vows one day she will "own" her. 21 years later, she is in the backfield of a cattle farm in Kentucky when she hears a horse thundering towards her. The horse rears up, kicks at her head and nearly kills her. It's Our Mims, no longer the champion she once was. Jeanne struggles to restore her health and wins the right to adopt her. Together they form a bond that leaves behind a legacy – Our Mims Retirement Haven. Written, produced and directed by Victoria Racimo.
